THE BEST SPOTS FOR SKIERS STILL LOOKING TO HIT THE SLOPES THIS SEASON

With late availability and snow sure resorts, Carrier handpick the ski adventures you should be booking for the rest of the 2024 season.

Manchester, February 2024: With the ski season in full swing, luxury tour operator Carrier have released a selection of packages to enjoy holidays on the slopes, where there is still time and space to book.

Skiers looking for late availability

With many resorts usually booked months in advance, Carrier have highlighted the destinations with pockets of availability for those looking for last minute departures. The packages include stays at Méribel's hippest ski-in ski-out hotel, Hôtel Le Coucou, and Crans Ambassador, a high-altitude playground in Crans-Montana, a destination that Carrier have seen an increased recent demand for.

Hôtel Le Coucou, Méribel, France

Be the last on the slopes

For skiers looking for end of season snow-sure escapes, Carrier recommend travelling to Zürs in Austria or Cervinia in Italy. With high altitude slopes and Easter falling a bit earlier this year, skiers can catch the last of the snow until around mid-April.

Hermitage Hotel & Spa, Cervinia, Italy

Carrier (0161 492 1359, www.carrier.co.uk) offers 7 nights from £2,955 per person based on 2 adults sharing a Deluxe Room. Price includes breakfast, return flights with EasyJet from London Gatwick to Milan Malpensa Airport, private transfers and Fast track at London Gatwick including meet & greet, luggage assistance, priority lane security and escort to departure gate. Price based on departure 06 April 2024.

Thurnher's Alpenhof, Zürs Am Arlberg, Austria

Carrier (0161 492 1359, www.carrier.co.uk) offers 7 nights from £22,080 per family based on two adults and two children (under 14 years of age) sharing a Two Bedroom Suite on a half board basis. Price includes return flights with EasyJet from London Gatwick to Innsbruck, private transfers and Fast track at London Gatwick including meet & greet, luggage assistance, priority lane security and escort to departure gate. Price based on departure 30 March 2024.
